Processional: "March Pontificale" Lemmens
(The congregation will remain standing for the invocation and the Gloria Patri)

Invocation

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires know, and from whom no secrets are hid, look into our hearts, the hearts of us thy children, as now for a moment we bow before thee. As we come to the end of one stage in our journey, may we increase our loyalty to those to whom we owe obligations which we can never pay—our homes, our college, our state, and our nation. May we be increasingly useful to them all and hold our gifts of learning, not as achievements of our own, but as treasures entrusted to us from the services of our fellows. Amen.

The Gloria Patri

"To The Lord Our God" (from The Holy City) A. R. Gaul

Mr. Gerow

Responsive Reading Dean M. J. Nelson, leading (Congregation seated)

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever.

The ordinances of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold.

Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: in keeping them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me.

Then shall I be upright, and I shall be clear from great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

Be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

—Psalm 19:7-14

Hymn: "Regent Square" Fosdick-Smart
(Congregation standing)

God of grace and God of glory
On thy people pour thy power;
Crown thine ancient church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
For the facing of this hour.

Cure thy children's warring madness,
Bend our pride to thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
Lest we miss thy kingdom's goal.

Set our feet on lofty places;
Gird our lives that they may be
Armored with all Christ-like graces
In the fight to set men free.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
That we fail not man nor thee!

Save us from weak resignation
To the evils we deplore;
Let the search for thy salvation
Be our glory evermore.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
Serving thee whom we adore. Amen.
